SECTION 1.

NOTES ON WAR ESTABLISHMENTS.

1. The establishments in the following tables show the composition of Headquarters and regimental units of the Territorial Force on mobilization.

2. The total numbers of personnel, excluding attached, in regimental units are the same as shown in regimental establishments.*

3. Where differences in rank or grade exist between the two establishments they will be adjusted by special promotions or appointments on mobilization.

4. Additional personnel for headquarters units required on mobilization will be found as follows :—

For Headquarters of Division :—

From Yeomanry—1 assistant provost-marshal, 10 military mounted police.
From Engineers—3 printers, 2 litho-draughtsmen, 1 litho-printer.
From Infantry—1 signalling officer, 7 signallers, 3 clerks, 1 cook, 29 bâtmen.

For Headquarters of Mounted Brigade :—

From Yeomanry—1 signalling officer, 4 signallers, 10 military mounted police, 1 cook, 11 bâtmen.

For Headquarters of Infantry Brigade :—

From Yeomanry—5 military mounted police.
From Infantry—1 signalling officer, 4 signallers, 1 cook, 10 bâtmen.

For Headquarters Divisional Artillery :—

From Artillery—1 clerk, 3 orderlies, 4 signallers, 1 cook, 8 bâtmen.

For Headquarter Divisional Engineers :—

From Engineers—1 engineer clerk, 2 orderlies to medical officer (one a lance corporal), 7 bâtmen.

In the Yeomanry the numbers given above are included in the establishment of regiments. In other arms they will be supernumerary to the establishment of selected units in peace.

* Except in the case of Divisional, cable, and air-line telegraph companies.

Digitized by Google

The following numbers are also required on mobilization and will be found either from Regular officers, from the Reserve of officers, or from supernumerary officers of Territorial units.

For Headquarters of Division:—

3 General Staff officers (1—1st and 2—3rd grade), 1 A.Q.M.G., 2 aides-de-camp, and Divisional Ordnance officer.

For Headquarters of Mounted Brigade, Infantry Brigade, and Divisional Artillery, each:—

1 aide-de-camp and 1 staff captain.

5. The transport and medical details shown as attached to units will be furnished by transport and supply columns and attached details of field ambulances respectively.

6. The Territorial Force consists of:—

14 Divisions,
14 Mounted Brigades,
Army Troops,
Special troops for Defended Ports.

7. The composition of a division is given on p. 9.

8. The composition of a mounted brigade is given on p. 9.

9. The composition of army troops is given on p. 10.

10. The composition of the special troops for defended ports is given on p. 10.

11. The transport of each unit is shown after its war establishment.

The Army Service Corps provides the transport personnel for the 2nd line transport of all units, the 1st line transport personnel of headquarters units except where otherwise stated, and transport personnel for baggage wagons of medical units.

Transport vehicles—both 1st and 2nd line—shown in the tables in italics, will be provided on mobilization by County Associations from civilian sources; vehicles shown in roman characters will be provided from Army sources. Vehicles on charge of units in peace, or allowed for annual training, are included in the numbers.

12. The medical arrangements for units for whom no medical officer is provided in war establishments are as follows:—

Headquarters of mounted and infantry brigades, and mounted brigade transport and supply columns—in charge of a medical officer to be detailed by the brigadier-general commanding.

Headquarters of divisional artillery—in charge of a medical officer with an artillery unit, to be detailed by the brigadier-general commanding divisional artillery.

Digitized by Google

Heavy battery and ammunition column—in charge of the medical officer with the howitzer brigade of the division.
Divisional engineers—in charge of the medical officer with the headquarters of divisional engineers.
Army troops engineers—in charge of medical officers to be detailed by the general officer commanding under whom they are employed.
Units allotted to garrisons—medical arrangements will be made by general officers concerned.

13. Chaplains will be attached to units as required.

14. The veterinary arrangements for units for whom no veterinary officer is provided in war establishments are as follows :—

Headquarters of divisional artillery—in charge of a veterinary officer with an artillery unit, to be detailed by the brigadier-general commanding divisional artillery.
Divisional engineers—in charge of the veterinary officer with the headquarters of divisional engineers.
Headquarters of mounted brigades—in charge of a veterinary officer with a unit, to be detailed by the brigadier-general commanding.
Heavy battery and ammunition column—in charge of the veterinary officer with the howitzer brigade of the division.
Infantry brigades—in charge of the veterinary officer with the divisional transport and supply column.
Mounted brigade field ambulance—in charge of veterinary officer with the mounted brigade transport and supply column.
Divisional field ambulances—in charge of veterinary officers with field artillery brigades, to be detailed by the brigadier-general commanding divisional artillery.
Army troops units—in charge of veterinary officers, to be detailed by the general officer commanding under whom they are employed.
Units allotted to garrisons—veterinary arrangements will be made by general officers concerned.

15. Bâtmen in the field are allowed at the rate of one for each dismounted officer or mounted officer with one horse, and two for each mounted officer with two or three horses.

16. Spare draught horses are allowed at the rate of 10 per cent. for field units, except in the case of a Heavy Artillery Battery and Ammunition Column, where a special scale is allowed. A driver is allowed for each pair of spare horses. Spare drivers are allowed at the rate of 10 per cent. after including the drivers for spare horses.

17. Spare drivers for 2nd line transport are included in the war establishments of Army Service Corps companies from which the 2nd line transport drivers of those units are detached.

18. The arrangements for bringing units to war establishment as regards attached personnel, horses, vehicles and equipment are laid down in Mobilization Regulations.

Digitized by Google

19. The tables on pages 5-8 show the scales of ammunition, rations, and forage on which the transport of units is calculated.

20. No blankets for men are included in the normal scale of equipment on which the war scale of transport is calculated, but one blanket per man will be carried when specially ordered. In units where this necessitates an addition to the normal scale of transport, the extra horses and vehicles are shown in a note on the war establishment tables. These will be provided by County Associations on mobilization.
